

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

JONATHAN CONTRERAS,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 8:14CR66

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum (“PSR”) and the Defendant’s objections (Filing No. 24). The government has not filed a formal objection to the PSR, though the government presented an objection in the Addendum to the PSR, objecting to Paragraphs #12 and #19 through #27. See Amended Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6.. The Defendant has filed a Motion for Variance, along with an accompanying Sentencing Memorandum (Filing Nos. 22 and 23). The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's Objections to Revised Presentence Investigation Report (Filing No. 24) and the government's informal objection will be heard at the sentencing hearing;
2. The Court intends to adopt the PSR in all other respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, these tentative findings are final;

5. The Defendant's Motion for Variance (Filing No. 22) will be heard at sentencing; and

6. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 12th day of September, 2014.
